CINNABAR AND TUNGSTEN

THE recent discoveries of cinnabar and tungsten ores are so close to Tonopah that they are almost overlooked here. It is not the case, however, with investors from a distance. They are making not merely inquiries, but investigations. Considerable capital has gone into the Sodaville tungsten district already and more will follow this spring. The scheelite and wolframite deposits are being actively developed and shipments made despite the snow.

Near Mina are the cinnabar deposits which are centers of interest, inasmuch as the price of quicksilver is steadily maintained, due not only to the demand for fulminate of mercury by the warring powers, but the increased use of this liquid metal in the arts and sciences. It will not be long before the Mina-Sodaville region will cut a considerable figure in the world's production of these minerals.

WHY THIS SUDDEN INTEREST?

WHY has President Wilson waited so long to urge upon the nation a programme that was no less imperative eighteen months ago than it is today? Why has he lurked in the background until national sentiment in favor of preparedness was aroused by the patience and eloquence of other men, and why does he now come forward as though none but himself had ever thought of the plan? Why—oh, why—has he waited until a few months before a national election, when the administration will be called upon to account for its four year's stewardship?

Why? Because he would attract attention from the wretched financial blunders of his administration. He would have the nation forget his sustained fiasco in Mexico. He would have us fail to remember that he has failed to make England, in any one of numerous instances, recognize the rights of American ships and American merchants. He would have us drop from mind the fact that Germany has not yet disavowed the sinking of the Lusitania. In other words, President Wilson is playing politics. He is trying to shift the issue, to juggle the cards.

If President Wilson warned Americans from Mexico, why is he so agitated that congress should warn them from taking passage on the armed ships of the belligerents? Perhaps he is sore because congress thought of it first.

Tonopah didn't actually need anything to come to its Rescue, Eula, nor were we pleading for an Extension. We weren't threatened with going to Halifax, and we came out Victor after all.

CLIPPED AND CREDITED

An eminent musician says that the Germans are unfamiliar with American music. Here's hoping they never have to face it.—Detroit Free Press.

They may not elect Elihu Root chairman of the Republican National convention, but they will take his keynote.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Espanque is not alarmed by those warnings, but there may such a thing as a ship being too proud to sail.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

The newly-elected president of Guatemala has already served seventeen years. He evidently doesn't believe in a one-term plank, either.—Los Angeles Times.

Notice that a man named Kearful has been given a job in Washington. Probably after a powder magazine—or guiding the conversation of the cabinet.—Nashville Tennessean.

A poor woman in Greenwich refused a legacy of forty thousand dollars because she believed the money was ill-gotten wealth. Many of us would have taken it and cleansed it by good use.—Minneapolis Journal.

Chicago has a graft scandal in which several women are involved. This is equal right, with all the frills.—Detroit Free Press.

Elihu Root tells the country the faults of President Wilson. Elihu is something of a Republican pathfinder.—MHamphis Appeal.

HOME SEEKER'S OPPORTUNITY

In a public notice issued by the secretary of the interior, announcement is made of the opening to homestead entry on March 9, of 58 farms in the Truckee-Carson irrigation project, Nevada. The charge for water right is $60 per acre, payable in accordance with the terms of the extension act in twenty years.

CATTLE CROSS DIVIDE TO FEED ON HAY

Several bands of cattle have passed through Austin during the past week or ten days on their way from Snooky and Monitor valleys to Reese River valley where hay has been purchased by their owners, there being a shortage at the home places. Among the largest drivers were: John Hickison, John Laxague, Wm. Streshley and Martinez Sans. The cattle will pick up from their tussel with the big snow at the Malloy, Phillippi and Watt haystacks.—Reese River Revell.

AWARDED DECREE BY DEFAULT IN KNIGHT CASE

A decree of divorce was issued to Mrs. Jeannette Knight in the local district court recently by Judge Walsh on the grounds that Bartholomew Knight was cruel and inhuman in his treatment of her. The case was contested and the decree was awarded by default. The court decreed that the defendant pay the plaintiff $75 a month for the support of a minor child and that he also pay the attorney fees of the plaintiff.—Tribune.

SEATTLE IN THROES MUNICIPAL ELECTION

HIRAM C. GILL IS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION FOR MAYOR TODAY

(By Associated Press.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Mar. 7.—An election of city officials, held in Seattle today, attracted more than local interest, partly because of the candidacy of Mayor Hiram C. Gill, known all over the United States because of his recall and subsequent re-election. Opposing Mayor Gill in his candidacy for re-election was Austin E. Griffiths, a wealthy retired lawyer, born in England. Griffiths has served the city as councilman and as chief of police.

Mayor's Gill's participation in Seattle politics began eighteen years ago when, at the age of thirty-two years, he was elected to the city council. Since then he has been councilman or mayor most of the time. He was elected mayor in 1910 and recalled by the newly enfranchised women in 1911 because of scandals in the police department. He ran again in 1912 and was defeated. In 1914 he was elected mayor by 17,000 majority. Last month he was re-nominated by a majority of 3,000 over all other candidates.

Other officers and candidates for them at today's election are: corporation counsel, James E. Bradford, (incumbent), Hugh M. Caldwell; comptroller, Harry Carroll, (incumbent), unopposed; treasurer, Ed. L. Terry, (incumbent), W. C. Hyatt; councilman (three to be elected), former Mayor William Hickman Moore, who is also a former state senator and former judge; Reginald H. Thompson, engineer who leveled Seattle's hill and laid out Strathcona park on Vancouver Island; Cecil B. Fitzgerald, councilman; Otto A. Case, former county auditor; Dr. Edwin J. Brown, Independent Socialist, (opposed by regular Socialists), and Charles Marble, councilman.

The campaign leading to the primaries on February 22, and the subsequent political activities, have been without bitterness or personalities. All candidates promised good govern-

ROYAL FAMILY DOWN TO SIMPLICITY BASIS

DOMESTIC STAFF CUT IN TWO BY CALLS TO GO TO THE FRONT

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Mar. 7.—Almost half of the domestic staff of Buckingham Palace has been released for duty at the front, and the life of the royal family brought down to a simplicity in keeping with times of war. The king still allows no wine at the table, and meals are served plain and simple as an example in self-denial to the people. Queen Mary, on her part, takes great care to prevent waste. One of the court institutions she has reduced in cost is the royal orchestra. The queen also insists on strict economy in the management of the war-time charities over which she presides. Too often, in peace time, these charities are really extravagant, fashionable fetes in the name of charity. But they are now run on a simple and business-like plan. Other members of the royal family follow the example of the heads of their house. Princess Christian, for example, has no longer a grandiose luncheon at her door, but a parlor maid in a dark blue uniform.

WITH THE TASTE LEFT OUT

There is nothing better for curing a chronic cough and other diseases of the air passages than Cod Liver Oil. But many people refrain from taking Cod Liver Oil because of its repulsive flavor. Our Wine Cod Liver Oil combines every medical virtue of the oil of selected Norwegian cods' liver without having the disagreeable smell and strong, fishy flavor that makes the straight oil so repugnant.
